The Daughter of Altsaleo.

Hundreds and hundreds of years ago,
So long 'tis impossible now to know
With anything like precision,
But thousands of m ons o'er the Western Coast
Had ever been seen by the pale-faced host,
When historical records were but, at most,
The shadows of wild tradition,

There was, (at least, so the legends say),
Where the waters of San Francisco Bay
Now nestle between the mountains,
A valley as l.ght as Mohammed's dream,
With beautiful flowers and murmuring streams
Where music of fairies had ever seemed
To rise from the laughing fountains

This vale was the home of a warlike band,
Whose prowess was famous through all the land
That borders the western sea:
And Miantonomah, their dauntless Chief,
Whose arm had brought many a foe to grief,
Made love in the shade of the autumn leaf,
To the daughter of Altsaleo.

The maiden was fair—as all maidens are—
With clustering masses of jet black hair
That fell in a sea of curls;
And eyes that sparkled like dewdrops bright,
Or glimmering stars in the heavens at night,
When they shone in a glory of lambent light
O'er the home of the Indian girl.

So he plighted his faith as a lover should,
'Neath the glistening boughs of the grand old wood
That were telling his vows a gain;
And he swore that his heart should changeless be,
As the mountains that towered so wild and free;
And he hoped that the waves of the western sea
Might burst through their rocky chain,

And deluge the plains of his native land,
With the vengeful wrath of Jehovah's hand,
If he ever should faithless be;
Or that ever the light of the sun might fade,
And the brightness of day turn to gloomy shade,
When he ceased to remember the vows he made
To the daughter of Altsaleo.

Oh, a weak frail thing is a lover's vow—
From the courtship of Adam and Eve till now
As the rose with the dew drop laden
For scarce had the tint of the wild wood leaf,
Been changed to the gold of the autumn sheaf,
Ere the supplant form of the perjured chief
Was wooing another maiden.

But the gods had remembered if men had not,
All the manifold oaths that the chief forgot,
And they loosened their vengeful wrath;
For scarcely the words had the old priest spoke,
That placed on his shoulders the sanpilal yoke,
When a column of sulphurous flame and smoke,
Burst forth like a demon's breath.

And it blighted the land where its dark form stayed,
Like the Spirit of Death in the Upas shade,
Settling down with its gloomy pall;
While the face of the earth heaved with mighty throes,
As the waves of the sea when the north wind blows,
And the tall, wild peaks of the mountains rose
Till they burst like a prison wall.

Then the waves rushed in in a dark, wild flood,
Till they covered the land where the cedars stood,
With the depth of an inland sea.
And the prows of the white-winged ships now glide
On the ebb and flow of the deep sea tide,
O'er the valley where once, by the streamlet's side,
Dwelt the daughter of Altsaleo.

CHARLES A. GARDNER.

They Won't Trouble You Long.

Children grow up; nothing on earth grows so fast as children. It was but yesterday, and that lad was playing with tops, a buoyant boy. He is a man, and gone now. There is no more childhood for him, or for us. Life has claimed him. When a beginning is made it is like raveling a stocking, stitch by stitch gives way till it's all gone. The house has not a child in it; there is no more noise in the hall, boys rushing pell-mell; it is very orderly now. There are no more skates, sleds, balls or strings left scattered about. Things are quiet enough now. There is no delay for sleepy folks; there is no longer any task, before you lie down, of looking after anybody, or tucking up the bed clothes. There are no disputes to settle, nobody to get off to school, no plaint, no importunities for impossible things, no rips to mend, no fingers to tie up, no faces to be washed, or collars to be arranged. There was never such a peace in the house! It would sound like music to have some feet clatter down the front stair! Oh for some children's noise! What used to ail us, that we were hushing their loud laugh, checking their noisy frolic, and reproving their slamming and banging the doors?

We wish our neighbors would only lend us an urchin or two to make a little noise in these premises. A home without children! It is like a lantern and no candle; a garden and no flowers; a brook and no water gurgling and gushing through its channel.

We would be tried, to be vexed, to be run over; to hear children at work with all its varieties. During the secular days this is enough—rather. But it is the Sabbath that puts our homes to proof. That is the Christian family day. The [illegible] of public worship are [illegible] of peace. The family seat is made up that day. The children are at home, and you can lay your hand upon their heads. They are to recognize the Father and Elder love—to God and to friends. The house is peaceful, but not still. There is a low and melodious thrill of children in it. But the Sabbath comes too still now. There is a silence that aches in the ear. There is too much room at the table, too much at the hearth. The bed-rooms are a world too orderly. There is too much leisure and too little noise. Alas! what mean these things? Is somebody growing old? Are these signs and tokens? Is life waning?

H. W. BEECHER.

The following sublime extract is from a speech delivered by Abraham Lincoln in 1859, when speaking of the slave power in America:

"Broken by it I too may be; bow to it, I never will. The probability that we may fall in the struggle, ought not to deter us from the support of a cause which we deem to be just; and it shall not deter me. If ever I feel the soul within me elevate and expand to those dimensions not wholly unworthy of its Almighty Architect, it is when I contemplate the cause of my country, deserted by all the world beside, and I standing alone, and hurling defiance at her victorious oppressors. Here, without contemplating consequences, before High Heaven and in the face of the world, I swear eternal fidelity to the just cause.

THE WILLAMETTE FARMER.

Devoted to Agriculture, and the other Industrial Interests of the North Pacific Coast.

RECOMMENDED BY THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

THE NECESSITY WHICH HAS SO LONG EXisted in Oregon for a journal where Farmers and other laboring men could meet and discuss their mutual interests, is obviated by the establishment of the WILLAMETTE FARMER.

The paper will advocate and labor for all interests that will advance the prosperity of the Farmer and Mechanic; and will have in view especially the encouragement of the cultivation and improvement of the soil, and the agricultural development of the State; fostering every branch of mechanical and household arts calculated to increase the happiness of home life; and extending and facilitating the various branches of Agriculture, Stock Raising, and Mining and mining interests.

Especial attention will be paid to the department of Domestic and Eastern News,
And the subscribers to the FARMER will receive each week a careful and complete synopsis of all the news of the State and adjoining Territories, compiled from our exchanges and other sources, as well as a summary of Eastern telegraphic news,—thus furnishing our readers a complete

THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!

LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE POISONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.

ORTON'S PREPARATION!

ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, no matter how strong the habit may be, or of how long standing. It is guaranteed to do what is recommended. It is perfectly safe and harmless to use. It cannot impose a Tobacco habit on the most delicate constitution, as it is entirely free from anything in the shape of Tobacco. As the name implies, it is intended to assist nature in overcoming a habit, which, with the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as he was before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the entire glandular system, and thoroughly cleansing the blood, and thus allaying Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Be all that is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons; the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly ABANDON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession.

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & Argus:

PITTSBURG, CALIFORNIA, Dec. 14, 1865.

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously impairing my health, I determined if possible to check myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, Me., for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL CESSIDLY.

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers will please order directly from the Proprietor, or his duly authorized Agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country securely sealed from observation, with passage paid on receipt of price.

How to send money by mail.—Enclose the amount in a letter, seal carefully, register the letter and take a receipt for it of your Postmaster. Money sent by mail as above directed at my risk. Address

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INVALIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
Prepared by SMITH & ROACH,
Harrisburg, Oregon.
SMITH & DAVIS, Portland, Oregon,
General Agents, to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by all Druggists. feb21dawtf

COMMON COUNCIL.—Wednesday evening, May 26; 1869. The Common Council of the City of Portland met at the usual hour, His Honor, the Mayor, presiding

Present—Councilmen Besser, Brock, Cree, Hopkins, Lewis, Norris, Porter and Ripley

The record of the preceding meeting was partly read and approved.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, ETC.

Petition of Lambert & Sykes for use of part of street for building purposes read, and the prayer thereof granted.

Petition of Solomon Kafka for reduction of license, read and referred to Committee on Health and Police.

Petition of J. E. Sedlak and thirty-four others, for an ordinance to prevent stock wearing bells in the city limits within certain hours. Referred to same committee.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses reported the bill of Harris & Holman for stationery correct. Report adopted

The Committee on Streets and Public Property reported on the petition of the property owners on Main street for the opening and improvement of said street from Front to Twelfth street, and recommended that the prayer of petitioners be granted. Report adopted.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The Street Commissioner reported that Isaac [illegible] obstructed College street by building a [illegible] fence; that notice had been given him to remove same, but that he refused to do so. Whereupon the Street Commissioner asked the action of the Council for instruction in the matter. It was referred to the City Attorney.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

Harris & Holman, $15; Oregon Herald, $32 75; Himes & Daly, $18; H. L. Pittock, $3; J. B. Wallace, $20; paid; ORDINANCES.

C. Besser to provide for the time and manner of improving Second street between Madison and Harrison; read a first and second time; rule suspended, and ordered to read a third time and passed.

An ordinance establishing the grade of Third and Fourth streets, read a first and second time and ordered over under the rule.

An ordinance authorizing the Committee on Streets and Public Property to enter into contracts for lighting street lamps, read a third time and placed on its final passage. The ordinance passed by ayes—Councilman Besser, Brock, Cree, Norris, Porter and Ripley; noes—Councilman Hopkins and Lewis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A resolution was adopted, authorising the Auditor to draw a warrant in favor of Northrup & [illegible], for $50, a balance due for improvements on the plaza.

A resolution was adopted giving notice of a proposal to change the base of grades on Second street, from Harrison to Sherman street.

A motion was carried instructing the Auditor to give notice of the proposed improvement of Main street from Front to Twelfth street.

Councilman Norris moved that a committee of three be appointed to examine into the matter of printing done for the city and ascertain whether more printing was not being done than was really necessary, said committee to report at next meeting of the Council. The motion prevailed, and the Chair appointed Councilman Norris, Lewis and Ripley as such committee.

On motion the Council adjourned.

CITY LICENSES.—We find in the Commercial, the following [illegible] ordinance relating to licenses: All licenses granted for a quarterly license shall expire on the last day of the quarter; viz: 31st of March, 30th of June, 30th of September and 31st of December. All licenses required by the city ordinance, shall be paid in advance in all cases. Auctioneers who follow their vocation [illegible] any time only, shall pay a quarterly license of $75; those who follow it both day and night, $75. Every person keeping a bar-room or drinking shop, shall pay a quarterly license of $50. Hotels, inns and taverns, shall pay, according to the rental or valuation of the house shall pay, [illegible] dollars, $15 per quarter; and if exceeding one hundred dollars, or fractional part in excess, $10 per quarter. Restaurants of the first class, $15 per week; second class, $12; third class, $9; fourth class, $5. Keepers of bowling alleys, $20 for each alley; billiard tables, and pigeon hole tables, shall pay quarterly, $5; for each additional table, more than one, shall pay a quarterly license of $50, or at the rate of $5 per night, at the option of the manager. Circuses shall pay $50 for each day and night of their exhibition. Jugglers shall pay $5 for each day and night of their exhibition. Agents of all other shows for monies not [illegible] and in this ordinance, weekly, $10. Pawnbrokers shall pay quarterly, $25. Steamboat runners, quarterly, $50. Hotel runners, quarterly, $15. Owners of hacks, [illegible] drays or vehicles of any description, when drawn by one animal, quarterly, $5; two animals, $8. Wharfingers, quarterly, $10; and keepers of cellars or dance houses pay at the rate of $100 monthly

HABEAS CORPUS.—Frank Vaughn, who had an examination before Judge Upton, yesterday, upon an appeal from the Police Court, was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000. He had been committed by Justice Smith, of this City, on the charge of murder. Upon the appeal, however, the Judge found circumstances which appeared to warrant him in granting bail. The testimony in the circumstances of the killing, is to have been quite different from the relation we gave in the case, although not materially so, except in regard to the motive and effect of the shots, and the fact that the [illegible] was provoked by threatening words and acts from Larkin. Larkin was the only one of the constable's party who was armed, and as Vaughn came out of the house and [illegible] fired him, Larkin put his hand upon his pistol and used some defiant words. The Court seemed to find the presumption that Vaughn acted in some part in self [illegible], or rather that he believed Larkin would shoot him. Vaughn fired four shots, two of which were fatal—one in the breast, the third in the arm and the fourth in the head, just over the right eye.

MILITARY.—We learn at headquarters the following [illegible] news:

Gen. Blake, Captain Babbitt and Lieut. Manning have returned to Fort Vancouver.

Major Darling has returned to Fort Stevens.

Col. McKay, who came up with recruits a few days since, returned to San Francisco by the Orizimmo.

Gen. Crook, accompanied by General Saxton, Lieut. Williams and Lieutenant Wilson, went down the river on the Shubrick, the guests of Commodore [illegible]. Gen. Crook will inspect the posts at the mouth of the river, before returning.

The continued ill health of Captain Craig, M. S. K., has compelled him to relinquish his duties as Quartermaster at Fort Vancouver. He goes to San Francisco on a short leave of absence, and hopes to get East from there.

Lieuts. Baker, Coppinger, Hunt, Perry and Parnell, Major Kelly, Captains Eskridge, Madigan (deceased), Small (deceased) and Stanton, and Lieut. Delaney, have recently been brevetted for services in the late Indian campaigns under Gen Crook.

OUTRAGE.—A proposition is made to perpetrate a most [illegible] outrage upon the "City Organ." A committee has been appointed by the Council to investigate the facts relative to the city printing, with a view of reducing the amount of this gratuity. Shall this thing be done without a protest? Is the "Organ" to be deprived of any portion of "sustenance" to which it has so long been accustomed? The tax payers, however, will rest easy when they reflect that this demonstration really means nothing, for it is made only in view of the approaching city election, and that no reduction which may be made is designed to be permanent. There must be a Democratic organ in the city, and if it can't stand on its own merits as a newspaper, why then it must be supported by the tax-payers. So what's the use of anybody's being unquiet?

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The following is the passenger list per steamship Orizimmo, for San Francisco: F S Oatheim, M Balmuster, wife and child, W C [illegible], Wm Forey, Wm Burnett and wife, Miss Burnett, Col McElroy, H Walsh, J E Kersey, A West, I Wilson, Rev H Boerie, L LeClair, A M Bell, Miss C H [illegible], Mrs M Strenger, J H Fosrot, P Peyser, William [illegible], John Joyce, Capt Conner, wife and servant, H Harris, wife and two children, [illegible] J Boyse, B McMandell, Rev. D W Todd, Dr W D Baker, J O Reynolds, Miss Nellie Cummings, J H Kellett, J M Coleman, J Wilson, H Hamilton, R Clinton, E F Mullen, Peter John, Mrs H Mullett, and twenty-five in the steerage.

GONE BELOW.—The theatrical season having closed, without any immediate prospect of renewal, several of the members of Mr Bates' company have left for San Francisco, by the steamer of last evening. Messrs. Bates, Barry and P. Thayer, Mrs Bates, Miss Field and Mrs. Bird remain here for the present, while Miss Cummings, and Messrs, Hamilton, Wilson, Clinton and Talby have gone to San Francisco.

COMMON COUNCIL MEETING.—The Committees on Finance and [illegible] appointed on the celebration of the Fourth of July, are respectfully requested to meet at the Council Room, at 8 o'clock on this Thursday evening, May 27th, 1869. By order J. C. AINSWORTH,

Chairman Committee on Finance

J. F. McCoy, Recorder.

CONCERT.—The people of Astoria some time since organized a Philharmonic Society. The members have been rehearsing, and now propose to give a grand concert at the Congregational church on Friday evening, the 28th inst. Capt. J. H. D Gray is the Musical Conductor, and Miss Mary Taylor, Pianist. The programme embraces sixteen pieces.

LEAVES OREGON.—Mr. L. W. Felton, who has for a long time acted in the capacity of agent in Oregon for the San Francisco Times, left this morning overland for [illegible], where he will hereafter be employed in the same line.

PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.—The seventh grand concert by the Portland Philharmonic Society will take place at Opera House Theater to-morrow evening. We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets

WHARF BUILDING.—We notice that the proprietors of the wharf at the foot of Madison and Main streets, are about to put up an upper story and to erect over the whole, a roof.

PICNICS POSTPONED.—As last year, the picnics are all hanging fire, on account of unfavorable weather. We suspect the lack of the weather is lernist picnics in general, or else that he has not been favored with complimentary invitations. The Turn Verein picnic has been twice postponed because from Several [illegible] Sunday school picnics have been postponed for the same reason, and now the Washington Guards excursion and picnic has gone over a week, because the mist wouldn't dry up. This sort of thing is getting ridiculous, and the first thing the clerk knows, we shall, in behalf of the injured and unhappy public, have a square up and up talk with him

TO HAVE A NEW BANNER.—The Benton Rechabite of this city held a meeting on Tuesday evening and among other things made provision for the purchase of a new banner. The Irish ladies of the city had already raised by contribution the greater part of the money necessary for its purchase. It is to be, we believe, six by nine feet, of rich silk material, appropriately lettered and ornamented and will cost about three hundred dollars. It is expected to be the finest banner in the city. In matters of this kind our Irish citizens go the whole [illegible]. The Brotherhood expect to receive the banner in time for use at the celebration of the 4th of July.

THE BURIAL OF MRS BURMEISTER.—The Boise Statesman of the 22d says: "The funeral procession which followed the remains of Mrs. Burmeister to their last resting place, was the largest and most imposing ever witnessed in the Territory. About fifty vehicles and the same number of horsemen and citizens, preceded by the Boise City Brass Band, were in attendance. The impressive burial service of the Odd Fellows, conducted by A. J. Bunner of Idaho City P. D. D. G. M. at the special request of Mrs Burmeister was said over the grave. It was the most solemn occasion that ever called our citizens together.

MAMMOTH STRAWBERRIES.—Mr Wm Prettyman, yesterday, placed upon our table a number of mammoth strawberries of the Triumph Dejond variety. One of them, almost the shape of a tomato, measured four and three-quarter inches in circumference, and several others measured but little less. The most of them appeared to have been several berries, all grown into one. Those which were evidently single berries were astonishingly large. We believe our market can show as fine a display of strawberries as any in the world.

REDUCTION OF OVERLAND TIME.—The Idaho World says: "We learn that John Hailey is having a survey made for a new road between Boise City and the Pacific Railroad, by which the staging distance will be greatly reduced. The new route will cross Snake river below Salmon Falls, and connect with the railroad at or near Indian creek. By this route Mr Hailey expects to have the trip between Boise City and the railroad made in two days. He will do it if he says so."

OREGON EXPORTS.—J. C. Merrill & Co's Market Report of the 18th inst. says: The receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date, have been as follows: Flour, qr sks, 281,093; wheat, sks 19,502; oats, sks 43,320; barley, sks 240; salmon bbls 803, half bbls 187, ca 1,469, pkgs 222; bacon, pkgs 3,326, beef, bbls 427; butter, pkgs 52, cheese, pkgs 12, hams, pkgs 272, lard, pkgs 1,393, pork, bbls 833; dried apples, pkgs 1,944.

DIED.—By request, we copy the following from the Commercial: "Died in Elko on the 6th inst., of pneumonia, Mr Frederick A Atkinson, formerly of this city He was aged about 48. His remains were brought from Elko and interred in the Cemetery at Sacramento on the 9th. He leaves a wife and three children. The widow was formerly a Mrs. Woodruff of this city, and the sister of Mrs N. Biggs

SAILED.—The steamship Orizimmo sailed last evening for San Francisco

The lighthouse tender, Shubrick, sailed yesterday morning for Astoria. She carried several anchors for buoys in the river channel. We are informed that she will sail in a few days for San Francisco for supplies and will return in about six weeks.

COMMENCED WORK.—We have observed that for two or three days workmen have been engaged upon the buildings begun last fall by Captain Ankeny. We believe it is his intention to put up the walls early in the summer.

ENTERPRISE FAUCET.—Mr. A. L. Johnson, agent for this new style of faucet, advertises this morning the certificate of several of our leading grocers, as to its superiority over any other. Read the advertisement

BASE BALL.—We are requested by Messrs. Buchtel and others, to invite all base ball players of this city to meet at the Plaza, at five o'clock this afternoon, for practice and consultation.

THE following new books have just been added to the Portland Library: The Philosophy of Eating, by Bellows; Things New and Old, by Spencer; The American Year Book, National Register 1869

NEWS.—The Commercial calls the Columbia river the "parent stream" of the Wallamet. This will be news to the "Abergwines."

SENATOR WILLIAMS.—The dispatches announce that Senator Williams arrived at San Francisco by Pacific railroad, Tuesday evening.

OWING to the great demand for Bunnell Hats, we have received another large invoice of them. For a summer hat there is nothing cooler or of prettier style. The Ganfrim, Cuba, Clayton, Barclay, and many others of the latest styles can be found at

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

WHY IS IT?

Why Is It—THE BUCKEYE RECEIVED ALL THE first premiums at State Fairs during 1868.

WHY IS IT that the OFFICIAL RECORDS of said State Fairs made quite a different showing when at the said State Fair in Ohio where the "BUCKEYE" originated WHY IS IT that said Fair was held in a small army of people in the field were not hard to represent a Mower made of dismounted and polished Iron, drawn in place on a carpeted platform and were the right to name engagements and learning to [illegible] entitled to secure the coveted First Premium [illegible] WHY IS IT that a "CLIPPER" of corresponding shop finish and ornamentation by a single local agent carried off the said First Premium in competition with the "BUCKEYE" and a dozen other leading mowers?

Why Is It—If the BUCKEYE captured the grand Diploma Medal at the great National Trial—concerning which so many changes have been rung—WHY IS IT that it would not be in good taste to ADD that this was some time ago (1868) and THEN once in a "CERTAIN CLASS," as a mower and that at the same trials in certain other "classes" several OTHER machines captured Grand Gold Medals?

Why Is It—If the "Buckeye" is acknowledged by ALL the world as the best machine invented? WHY IS IT that at numerous Field Trials, County and State Fairs in 1868, a different verdict was announced and further, WHY IS IT that in so many of the large grain growing districts east of the Rocky Mountains the Farmers should be unaware of this important fact, and other Patterns besides the "Buckeye" should so largely have the preference?

Why Is It—If the "Sweepstakes" is the best Thresher extant, WHY IS IT that the sales of some other manufacturers should so greatly exceed those of the "Sweepstakes" and WHY IS IT that so many of the wheat buyers along the Willamette GIVE THE PREFERENCE to grain threshed and cleaned with the IMPROVED "CHALLENGER?" And again WHY IS IT that after all this "Wash" and "Shine" brought to bear in favor of the Sweepstakes" and to make Farmers believe that the sun rises and sets in a "Sweepstake"—Separator yes, after all this agony, sitting up o' nights and painting "Sweepstakes" and "Buckeye" on boards to adorn Fir Trees along the road side, WHY IS IT that the Most Intelligent and Experienced Threshers pronounce in favor of the "CHALLENGER?"

Why Is It—If certain "honorable" and "upright" dealers do not aim to mislead the public, WHY IS IT that they advertise themselves as SOLE agents for the genuine Haines' Header?"

We have not space to enumerate several more queries that present themselves; but while we do not wish to detract from the merits of the "Buckeye" or "Sweepstakes," we would caution Farmers not to be HUMBUGGED and MISLED by windy representations, garbled reports and statements, but to look about and make a personal examination and comparison of the various IMPROVEMENTS lately made on harvesting machines, before buying. If then not fully satisfied as to which is the BEST MACHINE we will allow any purchaser the privilege of working a "Clipper" alongside of a "Buckeye Mower," a Dodge's Improved "Ohio and Buckeye" Hand or Self-Raking Reaper and Mower of the new style alongside of a "Buckeye Self-Raker," or a Pitt's "Challenger" alongside of a "Sweepstakes," he agreeing to keep and pay for the machine preferred.

We invite and challenge THIS SORT of competition, not fearing the intelligent farmer's choice. Such trials are more satisfactory to the farmer than all this "claptrap" of prizes awarded and high sounding statements of superiority. More anon

The Free Trade Furore

The New York Times says the country is entering upon a new era of discussion on tariffs and Free Trade. That may be; but nobody supposes that we shall ever have absolute, theoretical free trade in this country. Entertains a most fanciful and visionary notion. No civilized nation has free trade. In our country the greater part of the public revenue has always been derived from customs. There can be no issue between this system and that of absolute free trade, and nine-tenths of the advocates of free trade theories are compelled to acknowledge, when dinned down to it that the Government will be under the necessity of continuing a tariff for revenue. Now revenue is the main object of the present tariff. The necessities of the country demand the largest possible revenue that can be obtained from this source. If we do not mean to repudiate the national debt (and nothing is more certain than that the people do not mean to do this) the tariff duties on imported goods must necessarily be kept up to something near the present rates. As the debt becomes smaller they may be gradually reduced, always keeping in mind the financial wants of the Government. We now raise about three times as much money from customs as we did before the war; but after the debt is paid we shall be able to go back pretty nearly to the old rates. It is well to bear constantly in mind the condition of the country, that we may not be misled by the new cry for free trade which is again springing up in several places.

From a moderate and sensible article on this subject which appears in an Eastern paper, we make an extract: In some way all governments must raise an adequate revenue; and, hence, the practical question is simply one of ways and means. The admissible methods of gaining this end consist in levying a tax per capita, or a tax on property real and personal, or a tax on domestic exchanges, or a tax on imported merchandise. The last of these methods, for a nation that has an adequate foreign trade, seems the least objectionable. It makes the tax voluntary to the importer, and tributary to the purchaser and consumer. It is less likely to be burdensome and offensive to the people than a direct tax. We do not see how a government having the [illegible] condition of an ample foreign trade can [illegible] or cheaper way to raise revenue [illegible] for its own [illegible] In peculiar [illegible] may have to add one or more of the other methods; but when a tariff will answer the purpose, we think it the simplest and the best. Such is the general experience and such the general practice of the trading nations; and this fact surely is worth something in the case. The advocates of "free trade," who would abolish all custom-houses, and open all countries to the unrestricted trade of all countries, have no like experience with which to support their theory. There is, moreover, no prospect that all the nations that trade with each other will agree to adopt their proposition; and, hence, any nation that should attempt for itself to reduce the theory to practice would be working at an enormous disadvantage in comparison with the others. Its own experience would soon [illegible] it the impracticability of the measure.

The Cuban Insurrection.

Advices from Cuba represent the war between the Spanish authorities and insurrectionary forces as descending to common butchery. Each party is attempting to throw upon the other the onus of the first step in this system of cruelty, and both, of course, justify themselves on the general principle of retaliation. The proclamation of Valmaseda, the commander of the Spanish forces, of which no doubt has been said, is as follows:

To Citizens of the Country: The reinforcements I was waiting for have already arrived; with them I am going to afford protection to the loyal, to chastise those who are still rebellious against the Government of the Metropolis.

You know that I have pardoned those who, [illegible] in their hands have combated us; you also are aware that my wife, mothers and sisters have [illegible] protection refused by [illegible] and wonder at by them; you are aware also that many of those pardoned have [illegible] against me. In view of those ex[illegible] of such ingratitude and of so much villainy, it is no longer possible that I can be the man of yesterday; a lying neutrality no longer [illegible]; he who is not with me is against me, and in order that my soldiers may know how to distinguish you, listen to the orders of which they are the [illegible]

Every man, from the age of fifteen upward, who may be found absent from his home, that cannot give a justifiable reason for so absenting himself, will be shot.

All villages found uninhabited will be burned by the troops.

All establishments where a white cloth is not displayed in form of a flag to signify that its inhabitants desire peace, will be burned to ashes.

The wives, who may not be found in their respective dwellings or in those of their friends, will be concentrated in the towns of Figuani, or Bayamo, their maintenance will be provided for; those who do not comply with this order will be carried thither by force.

These words will first take effect from the 14th of the present month.

Bayamo, April 4, 1869.

Letters from Cuba state that it is impossible to give an adequate idea of the number of murders committed or of the dwellings, villages and towns burned in compliance with this proclamation. This step afforded the insurgents a pretext for retaliation, and a counter proclamation was issued by Cespedes, the rebel leader. But the Spanish authorities now produce a proclamation of a similar kind which they allege was issued by Cespedes some time before Valmazeda's proclamation was issued. It affords a convincing proof of the hostility of Spain that this insurrection was not stamped out a good while ago.

FALL OF PRICES.—The Commercial and Financial Chronicle of New York attributes the present depression of business throughout the country mainly to the fall in breadstuffs. It says that collections at the West are made slowly and with difficulty; for with lower prices for his products the farmer finds himself unexpectedly crippled in his capacity to pay what he owes, or to maintain the scale of expenditures to which a long period of high prices has accustomed him. The Western merchant, therefore, is not in a position to meet the claims of his Eastern creditors, or to buy goods to an extent corresponding with their recent importations. With prices and demand both reduced, some branches of trade and manufacture are carried on at a loss, and as the Western market enters largely into the calculations of merchant and manufacturer, the Chronicle thinks that the latter must soon be compelled to seek compensation in a reduction of the price of labor, or of raw materials, or of both. Then comes this statement:

The cost of the main element of subsistence has declined nearly one-half, fuel has fallen in nearly an equal proportion, clothing is rapidly cheapening, and the prospects of the Southern crops encourage the hope of a cotton yield which will give fresh impulse to this tendency, and although animal food still remains high, yet the increased profits upon grain growing will naturally direct attention to cattle farming, and increase our supply of pork and beef. Thus it will be seen that the return of breadstuffs to comparatively low prices, leads the way to a general reduction in the value of all domestic products embraced in the cost of living.

Vice President Colfax's Remarks on the Pacific Coast.

In his oration at the Pacific railroad celebration at Chicago on the 10th inst., Vice President said:

We talk of New England as the hive of manufactures. I put this prediction on record, and I won't wait ten years to see it fulfilled, that California and Oregon are going to almost drive New England in manufactures. I believe it. With all the hundreds of millions in the lands fronting the Pacific sea, stretching out their hands, as they will, towards this country for those articles that can be manufactured here, you will see the infant manufacturers of the Pacific States leaping forward with the gigantic stride with which our country has illustrated its entire history in the annals of the world. Have you thought of how we are swelling in population? Going, as I did two or three weeks ago, and looking back on ancient and modern history, I found no parallel to it. The rapid advance of this country, not alone in its wealth, which has more than doubled every ten years, but in the increase of its population, which is even more valuable than gold and silver, and has grown six times more rapidly than Great Britain, nine times more rapidly than Austria, ten times more rapidly than France, and it is destined to have its hundred millions at the end of the century; and beyond it to be, to its power, in its grandeur, in its territorial area, in its resources, in its capabilities and in its opportunities, after the opening of the next century, what I dare not attempt to-night to predict to you—it is to come, if we are faithful, it is to come if we are just; it is to come, if we are true to ourselves; from Orient to Occident, from mountain to mountain, from Atlantic to Pacific, from hundred harbored Maine to the Golden Gate, the future of this great country, if only prudence, wisdom, justice, and right, and peace shall guide it, shall be beyond the portrayal of language, beyond any words my heart could devise, or that my tongue could express to you upon this joyful night, the opening of the new history of the American republic.

In General.

The strength of the various trade organizations in New York City is 66,099 persons. In an emergency these unions could raise $500,000. The typographical union has recently spent $16,000 in sustaining a long strike, and the strike is not yet closed.

The object of the strike among the Pennsylvania coal miners, of which so much is said in the telegraphic dispatches, is to keep down the supply of coal and thus keep up the price. Here we have the spectacle of working men combining together to prevent the cheapening of an important commodity.

We do wonder what has become of the Commercial's heavy expounder of the "marry-your-daughter-to-a-nigger philosophy?" He has not been heard from for several days. Meanwhile the startling inquiry is ringing in the ears of the country, "How would you like for your daughter to marry a nigger?" And no one comes to the rescue.

It is precisely as we expected. From month to month the report comes that the public debt is steadily diminishing, and our neighbor of the Herald refuses to be comforted. He says that "the fact that the balance against the Government is reduced is no evidence that the public debt is being reduced one farthing." O! sage conclusion.

Speaking of the proposition to secure the insertion in Eastern journals of an article on Oregon, the Farmer states that a proposition is already before the New York Tribune for the publication of such an article in its weekly edition, to occupy one, two or three pages, as may be agreed upon. We infer the State Agricultural Society are engaged in this negotiation.

Harriet Beecher Stowe is publishing another novel. It is in the autobiographic form, and the few incidents of a plot remarkably simple and straightforward are skilfully made to serve as connecting links to a series of portraits of typical New England characters, as developed in all of their original and peculiar features during the generation which came to maturity at the time of the Revolution and during the next succeeding years.

In the "American Year Book" there is an article on iron in which we find the following: "Oregon is beginning to supply the markets of the Pacific coast with domestic iron. The product is very pure in quality and exceedingly abundant. The only furnace yet in operation is at Oswego, on the west bank of the Wallamet river, six miles south of Portland. Within the next few years the iron product of the State is likely to be very large."

We find in the New York World very sensible editorial on party, in which it is argued that a statesman must work in and through his party or not at all. The only sphere for independent and upright men with statesmanlike abilities is afforded by the press. The World gives the instance of Mr. Greeley, who has been a failure as a politician, while the "Tribune, in which all the peculiar vagaries of its editor have found expression, is conceded to be the most influential organ in the country of the Republican party."

The American cotton crop averaged, from 1856 to 1861, about 3,742,251 bales per year. The three years since the war, shows a production, respectively, of 2,522,694 bales for '65-6, 2,171,796 bales for '66-7, and 2,591,601 bales for '67-8. These figures in Hunt's Magazine, are suppose to present the first accurate and complete statement that has yet been made. It is seen that the production is considerably below the anti-rebellion figures, but it is increasing slowly, while the price of the late crop has been so high as to yield to the planter quite as much cash as in any former year.

Information, says a letter from Washington, has been received here from Hayti to the effect that the Government and people of that island are highly indignant at the appointment of a negro to represent the Government of the United States at that court. It appears that the aristocratic negroes of Hayti look down with contempt upon their sable brethren in this country, and regard the action of our Government in appointing a negro minister as, to say the least, a slighting of them, if not an insult. Now why couldn't a proud Caucasian Democrat be sent out to mollify these aristocratic "niggers?" We suggest Ben Hayden for the place, unless it has been determined to send him to Alta Vela, vice Guano, removed.

From Atlantic journals we learn that in England there is a movement on foot to inaugurate a systematic organization to facilitate emigration from there to the United States. The trade unions, and leading capitalists and politicians, are co-operating in the work, deeming it the best means of relief for the operatives. And is to be extended to the spinners and miners now on a strike that they may emigrate, and committees formed of leading workingmen will shortly come to the United States to obtain information and ascertain the lay of the land generally. On their return, bureaus of emigration will be established in two or three different cities. This movement looks as though John Bull is at last about taking a sensible way to stop the cry for bread.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Thomas Hoey, who was passing through a deep cut on the Protrero toward Long Bridge, at 9 P. M. last night, was suddenly met by a man who presented a revolver inside him, threw him down and robbed him of a gold watch and some small change. Information being lodged with police detectives, they worked up the case and at 8 A. M. to-day arrested a man named Chas. Tuckerman, alias Taylor, alias Outil, who has just served out a term of years in the penitentiary for forgery. He was brought to bay in a house on Dupont street, near Clay. On being confronted with having done the deed, as the act is known, he was recognized by the latter as the man who robbed him last night. A watch was found upon him which was identified by one of the parties who was robbed on Sunday night on the San Bruno road as being his. A sandwich cutter was found on Tuckerman.

Jas. Earl, a special policeman, was struck with paralysis on Monday night last and fell to the ground helpless.

The ship Archer, lying in the stream, was seen to have her colors hoisted half-mast down at 9 this morning. The harbor police boarded her, found a seaman named Henry Smith half beaten and his throat cut from ear to ear. The steward of the Archer states that the wounded man was shipped as a seaman on Monday and that for some unknown reason the second mate, boatswain and ship keeper assaulted him yesterday, knocking him down, jumping on and kicking him, then dragged him below and tied him up. This morning he was found with his throat cut, but whether done by himself or others is unknown. The ship keeper, boatswain and second mate are under arrest, and the man Smith will probably die.

John C. Keenan, proprietor of a saloon on Montgomery street, dropped dead at his house, on Kearney street, last night; cause unknown.

R. Redington was found dead in his bed at the Pacific Hotel to-day.

A fire occurred yesterday afternoon, destroying a grocery owned by P. J. Kelly, corner First and Jessie streets; loss, $3,000, insured for $2,000.

Judge Stephen J. Field of the U. S. Supreme Court, Senators Casserly and Williams of California and Oregon, arrived by Pacific Railroad last night.

PARIS, May 24.—The elections throughout the country have been most orderly. The vote is very heavy. More than half the electors in Paris cast their votes on Sunday, the first day of voting.

BERLIN, May 24.—The Parliament of the Zollvereine will meet in this city June 3d.

VIENNA, May 24.—It is rumored that Czartoryski, a descendant of the famous patriot of Poland, is to be appointed Governor of Galicia. This is looked on as an anti-Russian demonstration on the part of the Austrian Government.

CORK, May 24.—The police are taking unusual precautions to prevent outbreaks. Several houses have been searched for concealed arms.

LONDON, May 24.—The Times to day continues the discussion of the American claims. It urges that the depredations committed by the Alabama are identical with cases of wrongful capture and cannot be removed from the category, on the ground that an unfriendly spirit was shown in this country previous to the occurrence. What ever direction our sympathy may have taken, it cannot be taken into consideration before any international tribunal. Let the question of sympathy be settled by reflection and cool communing with conscience on both sides. Let the alleged injuries be measured and appraised before the proper tribunals.

PARIS, May 24, Evening.—Among the candidates to the Corps Legislatif, whose elections are certain, are Boureel, Picard, Gambetta, Simon and Pidetin. Jules, Favre, Garnier, Ruges and Thiers, are probably elected. Oliver is defeated.

PARIS, May 25.—The election for the Corps Legislatif resulted as follows: Government candidates elected, 193; opposition candidates elected, 90. Number of opposing party last Corps Legislatif, 45. Among the members elected are Jules Simon and Eugene Pelletan. Thiers is probably defeated.

OREGON.

The Polk county Times says there are two dozen young men at Dallas who are too lazy to play base ball.

There will be a Convention of Good Templars held at Lafayette, Yamhill county, on Monday, the 7th of June. Rev. John Spencer will deliver a public lecture.

Mr. Dufur, of this county, writes to the Farmer. From 22 cows I have made 178 pounds of butter per week for the last three weeks, which readily sold in Portland at fifty cents per pound, making $267 for the three weeks. Would it not be well for the farmers of Oregon to give a little more attention to the dairy business, and supply the home demand for butter and cheese, both summer and winter, besides having a few tons of superior article to send annually to Victoria and San Francisco?

The Courant of Tuesday says: The Orphans' Home, the property of the Ladies' Orphans' Aid Society, was dedicated yesterday by Rev. L. D. Driver. Mr. Royal with his wife are the keepers of the Home. There has been one orphan received, a bright little girl about eighteen months old, who was baptised at the close of the dedication ceremonies. The building, though small, is amply sufficient for the present requirements of the society. It is well built and arranged with regard to comfort and convenience, with a substantial fence around the grounds. A small garden has already been planted. With an expenditure of about a thousand dollars the place would be as fine as any in the country.

Of the Bohemian mines the Roseburg paper says: We learn from Captain Crouch and Wm. Hawley who have just returned from a trip to Mt. Majesty, that the road from Oakland to the mines is in good condition, being free from fallen timber and the snow having entirely disappeared. We also learn from various sources that a vigorous attempt will be made this season to develop the various quartz ledges in that district, and that one or two mills will be taken in. The assays of rock made since the work was abandoned last fall, leaves no doubt that it is one of the richest quartz districts on the coast, not except ing White Pine.

At the late session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Salem, Charters were granted to Silver Lodge, No. 21, at Silverton; Buena Vista Lodge, No. 24, at Buena Vista; Baker City Lodge, No. 25, at Baker City; Highland Lodge, No. 26, Polk county; Excelsior Lodge, No. 4, Idaho; Rocky Mountain Lodge, No. 5, Idaho; Pioneer Lodge, No. 1, Salem; Portland Degree Lodge, No. 2, Portland; Colfax Degree of Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, Salem; Oregon City Degree of Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, Oregon City. The financial condition of the Grand Lodge is very satisfactory. After paying the expenses of the session, and a debt of $1,000, contracted at the last session, a balance remains in the hands of the Treasurer.

Ben Butler thinks we had better let our claims against Great Britain stand for the present. He says we can easily find means whenever she gets into a war, to sweep her commerce from the ocean and substitute in its place our own. In maritime matters we hold her under perpetual bonds to keep the peace to the amount of interest she has in commerce and manufactures. We thus reduce her to a third-rate power, because all nations know she dares not be provoked into war. Therefore, as long as she stands in her present attitude with us, she has no commanding position in the politics of Europe.

An Owyhee paper reports that the Portman shaft will be down by the 12th of June, deep enough for the contemplated new levels, at which time an increased yield of rich ore is expected.

BRECKINRIDGE.—A Frankfort, Ky., letter of the 9th of April, says:

Since his return to Lexington, John C. Breckinridge has visited Frankfort and Louisville. He is yet undecided as to what he will do or where he will go. There is a good deal of talk about his returning to the practice of the law, which he never practiced or understood, but among the knowing ones it is surmised that he will go into the Kentucky Legislature at its next session, in place of Preston, who now holds the seat for Fayette county, but who will give way for Breckinridge. It is all a mistake that Breckinridge is poor and broken. He is worth not less than $60,000, and his health was never so good as now.

In return for the sum of one dollar Commodore Vanderbilt has given all his property on Staten Island to his eldest son, William. The property embraces large areas of land, which have been permitted to remain in an undeveloped condition. The islanders are much elated at the report that these lands are now to be disposed of in lots by Mr. Wm. Vanderbilt to persons who will improve them, build residences and in other ways aid in the material progress and growth of Richmond county.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—The following recommendation comes from a source of such well known and indisputable character, that it requires no comment beyond its publication:

I have given Kane's Imperial Ondenated Soap a thorough and impartial trial, and am satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it. I washed three dozen white shirts, using half a bar of soap. It did its work well, requiring no rubbing, and I cheerfully recommend it as the best Washing Compound I ever used.

S. WHITLEY.

Victoria, May 18, 1869.

PEOPLE SHAKE—not with fear as to the future of Portland, but with the Ague, which can be cured in six hours and no return of the chills or dumb ague or its kindred ills, by using our celebrated and sure South Carolina Ague Cure. It is sold at the reasonable price of $1 00 per bottle. Call at "The Oregon Dispensary" for your Spring Medicines, for they are all pure, fresh and cheap and will be selected for by the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in the city. Everybody patronizes the Oregon Dispensary in consequence of the above fact, and it requires five assistants to attend to the wants of our patrons. LORYEA & KALLENBERG, 73 First street, Portland.

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Orifiamme, it will be positively known where the Railroad Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further doubt, will be established at the well known house of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest, best and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Dry Goods can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

THE MAMMOTH OX!

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON. LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,

BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,

THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!

propose to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production; and before leaving the State they will every man, woman and child to see and in order to give them an opportunity, they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents, children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most—and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Mt. Hood upon Legs,

Business men—make a note of this and remember—MONEY MAKES THE OX GO, and patronize accordingly.

Office of Chief Commissary of Subsistence, Department of the Columbia, Carter's Building, Portland, Oregon, May 27, 1869.

SEALED PROPOSALS (IN DUPLICATE) ARE INvited, and will be received at this office till 12 M., Thursday, July 1, 1869, for furnishing and delivering at times, places, and in quantities, as follows, viz:

At Fort Colville, W. T., 46,000 pounds, net weight;
At Fort Lapwai, Idaho, 35,000 pounds, net weight,
At Camp Warner, Oregon, 95,000 pounds, net weight.

The Cattle to be delivered on or before Sept. 1st next, subject to inspection at place of delivery, to be tame American steers, not less than 4, nor more than 6 years old, to weigh not less than 450 nor more than 650 lbs net each, and to be in good condition, fit for immediate slaughter and issue. Said Cattle to be kept from 6 to 10 days at the point of delivery, without food or water, then to be weighed upon scales at the expense of the contractor, and their net weight shall be determined by deducting 50 per cent. from their live weight thus ascertained.

Bidders are invited to be present at opening of bids and to state on the bid, the proposed time of delivery, and will give residence and full address of their sureties.

The usual conditions will be imposed; the U. S. reserve the right to reject any or all bids, etc.

The success of this advertisement inserted six days in the daily newspapers, and of making contracts will be decided among the successful bidders pro rata.

Any further necessary desired information can be obtained by applying at the office.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongues may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 25.

Religious Intelligence

[Continuation of yesterday's dispatch.]

NEW YORK, May 26.—A considerable discussion arose in reference to outrages on the Chinese in California. Elder Haber, of California, said the matter had been greatly exaggerated and was by no means a matter deserving interference on the part of the General or State Governments.

The order of the day was the reception of delegates from corresponding bodies, and delegates from the old school. The delegates from the Old School Assembly were received by the assembly standing. The old school delegates made addresses expressing a desire for reunion, which were replied to by Dr. Fowler, Moderator, and new school in reciprocal terms.

The delegates from the New England bodies were then invited to seats, and addresses were interchanged at the afternoon session.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The New School Assembly, after a long discussion on the report of the Committee on Foreign Missions, has modified its report by the omission of California Chinese affairs, and was adopted.

Troubles in the Coal Mines.

SCRANTON, May 24.—This forenoon, an anonymous notice, threatening death to any miner who descended a shaft to work, was found posted at the Oxford Mine. A wild and most unreasonable panic rapidly spread and in all but four of the mines the men refused to work.

Valuable Cargo Lost The Treasurer at New York

NEW YORK, May 24.—The cargo of the steamship Mississippi, lost off Martinique, consisting of nearly 14,000 bags of coffee with sundry Brazilian productions was valued at $300,000 in gold. The cargo was insured, but the vessel was not.

It is stated that early last April, Assistant Treasurer Van Dyck tendered his resignation and that he only temporarily hold his place at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury till a suitable successor can be found.

Storm in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, May 24. A violent thunder storm swept over this city last Saturday night, damaging property to a large extent. A boat in the harbor was capsized and a woman and two children were drowned.

Filibusters Landed at Cuba.

KEY WEST, May 24.—Capt. Carlile and others of the steamer San Salvador have arrived from Nassau. They report the successful landing of troops and ammunition in Cuba.

Gas Explosion.

CINCINNATI, May 24.—Shortly after noon to-day the second largest gasometer in the city exploded with terrific sound, which was heard over the city. The tank was full of gas at the time. The excitement was intense, and probably 20,000 people were in the streets in the vicinity of the gasworks. A few minutes afterward a second explosion occurred, causing a fearful backward movement and stampede. The loss is one gas apparatus worth $175,000 and there were 375,000 feet of gas in the tank. Only one man was killed, but several others were injured. Most of the workmen were absent, it being dinner hour at the time of the explosion.

Commercial Convention at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—The delegates to the Commercial Convention met at the Mechanics' Institute. Chauncey J. Filley, of St. Louis, was chosen permanent Chairman, with a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Boston Postoffice Robbed.

BOSTON, May 25.—Several letter boxes of the postoffice were found pried open this morning and robbed of their contents. Among them the Suffolk Bank missed a letter containing a check amounting to $150,000, which was subsequently found in the collar-way and returned to the bank. Young boys are suspected as being the perpetrators.

Our Relations with England.

CHICAGO, May 25.—The Tribune's special says the Cabinet is considering the question of England's belligerency as set forth in Sumner's speech with much care. Grave exceptions are taken by some members to resting our case to the extent he does upon the difference between constituting a blockade and closing ports. Gen. Butler has called attention to the fact that the Supreme Court had actually recognized the belligerency of the South prior to the Queen's proclamation. It also appears that we are on record in diplomatic correspondence as thanking Spain, when she recognized the belligerent rights, for not doing more. Several Senators are said to appear to think that the action of the Senate was rather precipitate in rejecting the Johnson Stanley treaty, and were the case again before them they would do otherwise.

Comments of the British Press.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The Herald's London dispatch says the papers there have striking articles on American matters.

The Star, (Bright's organ), takes up the recent speech of Mr. Foster, member of Parliament, who endeavored to show that the neutrality proclamation was of real benefit to the North. It assails Sumner for endeavoring to endanger peace between the two countries, and argues that while the general society of England favored the South the laboring class undoubtedly sympathized with the American Government. It further declares that the general opinion may not probably be unfavorable to the Irish church bill, but it is certainly opposed to the ample statesmanlike settlement of the Irish land question, which is sure to be the next great act of the Government, and which will be established despite such feeling. It therefore believes it impolitic on the part of American statesmen to spurn the friendly offer of a few millions for the purpose of getting fabulous damages for futile affronts.

The Standard, (Tory organ), bitterly reproaches the Radicals for addressing the Americans in the language of affection and admiration. The flattery with which Americans have been besmeared, is the cause of the existing menacing attitude. No man with English blood in his veins could deal with Sumner's speech in such an unmanner ly strain. America is deceived by the belief that England will meekly endure insult and will humbly submit to any chastisement. It remembers the plain facts of war, and cannot be humbugged into a belief that the bulk of the English people approved the subjugation of the South. Such an assertion makes the Americans believe that England, by telling lies, wishes to escape a threshing. We were never guilty of meanness in denying the sympathies we entertained in order to escape the displeasure of the successful party.

Crimes at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 25.—A drunken man yesterday fired a pistol at a negro, inflicting a slight flesh wound in the cheek, but the ball lodged in the body of a little boy, inflicting a fatal wound. The tragedy occurred in the locality known as Congress Park, the same place where Burkhart was wounded a few nights since.

The body of a young lady was found murdered on an island in the river a day two since. It is probably that of Lizzie Helger, just arrived from Bremen, who had been inveigled from the depot by two unknown men. An attempt had been made to violate her person before death.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, May 25.—The official account of the landing of the filibustering expedition in the eastern department has been made public. Seven hundred men disembarked on the night of the 16th in the bay of Nipe and quietly took possession, mounting six guns and fortifying three houses. They remained undiscovered for thirty-six hours. Captain Mosco attacked them with one hundred and twenty men, stormed one house, and captured a flag, but was finally obliged to retire, his ammunition giving out. The filibusters lost sixty killed and one hundred and sixty wounded. The Spanish had four killed. The flag captured was presented to Eulelia Cassanova. The troops captured the six guns and turned them upon the filibusters. They spiked the guns before they left. Four steamers with troops have sailed for the bay of Nipe.

It is rumored that the rebel General Quesada has been captured and shot.

Sugar is steady and holders firm.

In Vermont the price for new maple sugar ranges from fifteen to twenty cents per pound for good tub and cake sugar, and from $1 20 to $1 40 per gallon for syrup.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Somebody in England proposes that Dickens shall be made a life peer under the bill now before Parliament. "Duke Dickens" would have a fine sound.

Three or four gold fish, which were introduced into the Potomac from the fountain of the Capitol grounds, a few years since, are said to be rapidly populating that river.

On January 1st, 1868, the Russian navy counted 118 admirals and generals, 5,035 officers, 685 civil employees, 305 cadets and sailing masters, and 24,084 soldiers and marines.

Commissioner Wells estimates the probable amount of the whisky tax for the present fiscal year at exceeding $40,000,000, while for the last fiscal year it was about $18,000,000.

The collection of customs in gold coin during the past week, says the San Francisco Chronicle of the 18th instant, amounts to $141,515, making a total of $2,502,016 since January 1st.

Horace Greeley is writing a book on political economy; and it was on account of his engagements in this authorship that he declined the appointment of Pacific Railroad Commissioner.

The German population of New York city is estimated at 346,000, and the Irish at 336,000. Other foreign nationalities not over 75,000. About 68 per cent. of the whole population is of foreign origin.

Twenty-one hundred fraudulent votes have so far been proved to have been cast for the Democratic ticket in Philadelphia last October. Nor is all the evidence yet in, before the Examiners who are hearing it under the order of the Court.

Three or four hundred passengers a day, each way, are already moving over the Overland Railroad, though it is barely completed, and in some places it is of too rude construction to render journeying over it a pleasure.

The German citizens of Indiana are exceedingly gratified at the passage by the Legislature of an amendment to the school law; authorising the German language to be taught in the common schools when the parents or guardians of 25 pupils shall require it.

Public eloquence ever distinguishes the reign of freedom, and it is significant of the progress made by the revolution in Spain, that Castelar, her great orator, though one of the minority in the Cortes, has carried all before him by an eloquent speech in defence of freedom of worship.

Peter Cartwright, the old hero of American Methodism, has been 65 years in the itinerant service, and 50 years a presiding elder; and in the last two months has made his district in Illinois blaze with the light of revivals. He was married in 1808, and his good wife still survives.

The Chicago University for women will be begun this summer. The building will be one hundred and eighty feet front, with a depth of one hundred and thirty-six feet, and will have an elevation of one hundred and twenty feet from the ground to the summit of the main tower.

The emigration from Prussia to the United States excites the surprise of the Berlin journals. On April 6th and 7th, there were conveyed to the Bremen 3,500 peasants, about to sail for America. The cause of the increase of emigration is attributed to the great famine and destitution in Eastern Prussia.

The Indiana divorce laws, which have hitherto been a standing disgrace to the good name of the State, have at length been changed by the Legislature in such a manner as to render it impossible for parties not living in the State to obtain "Indiana divorces," by merely paying a liberal fee to some unscrupulous lawyer.

There is in England a club of distinguished scholars known as the "Dictionary Club." It numbers among its members such men as the Deans of Westminster and Chester, Prof. Cheetham and Dr. William Smith. The object of the club, as its name indicates, seems to be to settle on some standard for spelling and pronouncing words. At their last annual meeting, April 9th, there appears to have been an attempt to revive Johnson and Walker as authorities.

An Indiana letter says: In adopting the bill for the education of colored children in the common schools, the Legislature has at length removed another relic of the old and pro-slavery regime, which was formerly so powerful in this State. The Senate Committee recommended the addition to the bill as it came from the House of Representatives of an amendment that colored children should occupy the same school room with white children where no objection was made. This was voted down, and the House bill was then passed.

Odds and Ends.

A disconsolate husband of Lyons, France, whose wife had deserted him, sent ten barrels of flour to the pious poor of the city, soliciting their prayers that the truant might not return.

An Indiana husband advertises his runaway wife, saying that she "has left him just as the summer's work is beginning, notwithstanding he has had the expense of wintering her."

A woman in Tennessee, at the age of thirty four, has had twenty three children, having given birth to the first at the age of fifteen. She has had six children, twins seven times, and a month ago had three children in one set.

The Swiss Government wished to employ women as telegraphers. Learning that operators would be sworn to absolute secrecy, many of those who had applied for situations withdrew, saying that was requiring altogether too much.

During a recent firemen's parade in Charleston, S. C., the national flag was borne at the head of the procession and escorted by a detail from the several companies. That even this should be done shows what a gain has been made in three years.

The style of the Nasby postmaster under the Johnsonian dynasty is fairly sampled at Indianapolis, where, locked up in a basement room of the postoffice, the new postmaster found fifty-five bags of undisturbed mail matter, which had accumulated during the winter.

It is said that the revival in Richmond, Ind., has been of such power that, while the police court usually had a weekly average of ten or a dozen cases of petty crimes before it, there have been no cases before it for the past two weeks. The police have time to turn their attention to the dogs, and the city attorney has retired to the country.

The philosophe Gautier, now an abject flatterer of the Emperor Napoleon, called him in a pamphlet published shortly after the disastrous attempt at Strasburg, "a bear eyed booby, with the bearing and appearance of a champagne caricature on the First Empire," a "clown who ought to be engaged by the proprietors of the hippodrome."

Sir Walter Scott was, in one of his walks, leaning on the arm of his faithful attendant, Tom Purdie. "Tom, sa'," "Them are fine horses of yours, Sir Walter; they are just invaluable to me." "I am glad to hear it, Tom." "Yes, sir, for when I have been out all day, hard at work, and come home very tired, and take up one of your novels, I'm asleep directly."

Josh Billings was asked "How fast does sound travel?" and his idea is it depends a good deal upon the nose you are talking about. "The average human nose, for instance, travels half a mile in a second while an invitashun to get up an hour going up 2 pair ov stairs, and then not hev strength enough left to be heard."

Jurisdiction Ceded

We are indebted to Mr. Liebtenthaler, of Marion county, for the following copy of

THE BILL

Granting the consent of the State of Oregon to the purchase by the United States of certain lands for the purpose of the erection of a building for the accommodation of the United States Courts, Postoffice, Custom House, Internal Revenue Office, Mints and Steamboat Inspectors, at Portland, Dalles and Astoria, and ceding jurisdiction over the same.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

SECTION 1. That the consent of the State of Oregon is hereby given to the purchase by the United States, of such lands in Portland, Dalles and Astoria not exceeding one acre in extent as may be selected by the United States as a site for public buildings, to accommodate the United States Courts, Postoffice, Custom House, Internal Revenue Office, Mints and Steamboat Inspectors.

SEC. 2. The jurisdiction of the State of Oregon in and over the said lands, when purchased by the United States, shall be, and the same hereby is, ceded to the United States for the purposes mentioned in the preceding section; and the jurisdiction hereby ceded shall continue no longer than the United States shall own the said lands.

SEC. 3. The said consent is given, and the said jurisdiction ceded, upon the express condition that the State of Oregon shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over the said lands, so far as that all civil process in all cases, and such criminal or other process as may issue under the laws or authority of the State against any person or persons charged with crimes or misdemeanors committed within said State, may be executed therein, in the same way and manner as if such consent had not been given or jurisdiction ceded, except so far as such process may affect the real or personal property of the United States.

SEC. 4. The jurisdiction hereby ceded shall not vest until the United States shall have acquired the title to said lands by purchase or grant, and so long as the said lands shall remain the property of the United States, when acquired as aforesaid, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exonerated from all taxes, assessments or other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of this State.

SEC. 5. It is further enacted that any malicious, wilful, reckless or voluntary injury to or mutilation of the grounds, buildings or appurtenances, shall subject the offender or offenders to a fine of not less than $20, to which may be added, for an aggravated offense, imprisonment not exceeding six months, in the county jail or workhouse, to be prosecuted before any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

Bound to see Grant.

The Bangor Jeffersonian tells of a Penobscot fruit-grower—a genuine Yankee—who stopped at Washington last Winter on his way home from a little trip to Florida. He was determined to see Grant, and therefore called at the War ibley and the Sibley Tent—Longstreet's Confirmation.

[Washington Correspondence Chicago Tribune.]

Thousands of soldiers who have slept under ne Sibley tent will be interested to hear some ccount of its inventor, the celebrated rebel eneral. He is one of those old-fashioned rmy officers, with a cast-iron contour of face, blazing black eye, a mouth fallen sidewise n giving the word of command, and held up o its place by an under jaw like an iron girder. Ie has iron-gray hair, a medium sized body, nd a dignified address. I found him an inelligent and agreeable man, professing re ewed interest in the country, confident hat all was for the best, and with self-respect ng anxiety to be restored to citizenship. His on-in-law, Colonel Stokes, edits the leadng Republican daily paper in Alabama. Both re friends of Longstreet, and rejoiced in his onfirmation.

The Sibley tent was invented many years go by General, then Major Sibley, as he was n command on the plains of New Mexico. Moving along with his command, one evening, e placed his wife in an ambulance to sleep. That night she complained of being cold. He hen gave her a bed in a common wall tent, ut the complaint of chilliness being repeated e had a fire made around one of the end ent-poles, in an excavated spot. The fire erved its purpose so far as heating was conerned, but next morning they both arose with headaches arising from the fumes of gas.

It then occurred to Major Sibley that this ire could be placed in the center of a tent, nd soldiers in the circle might lie around it, with their feet to the coals, while their heads, being at the circumference, would be far enough apart for good ventilation. He developed, therefore an experimental tent, composed of a pole in the center, with an iron fire-grating at the bottom of the pole. At the top of the pole the tent was suspended by a chain fastened to the upper tent-hoop. The next afterthought was to invent a flap above, which would veer around with the wind and make a gas funnel. The result was the Sibley tent, the best house the soldier ever set up in an encampment, the civilized habitation of the civilized soldier. With warm feet, with economized space, yet with perfect ventilation, the soldiers of the civil war took their household comforts with them afield. 200,000 of these tents were used by the Federal army alone, and the inventor being on the losing side, can make no claim for royalty and patent right during that period. His income before the war from this tent was several thousand dollars a year, and he received about eight dollars a tent, I believe, which was something like one-eighth the selling price of "the Sibley." This tent is as popular in the armies of Europe as here. It is, after all, merely the Indian wigwam in canvass.

I was greatly amused, while talking with Sibley and his friends, to see the interest they took in Longstreet's confirmation. Longstreet will be the General Monk of American history, making more of an era in his repentance than in his greatest military achievements. During the time his confirmation lay in abeyance, his ex-rebel friends met every evening to hear the news with nervous sympathy. One evening a gentleman burst in:

"What do you know of Longstreet's case today?" cried all.

"I know everything that was said in executive session!"

"Speak out!"

"Sumner opposed it tooth and nail! Cameron read some letter or order of Longstreet about the burning of Chambersburg. He said: 'I'll stand here all day and night before that man shall be confirmed!' Harris of Louisiana, replied: 'I'll stand here a week but he shall be confirmed!' Cameron said that Longstreet was responsible in a more marked degree than any living man for the destruction of Chambersburg, and he meant to fight him on it to the death."

There was a pause of pain amongst all the recanting Southerners.

"My God!" said one, "that town of Chambersburg is an unforgiveable sin. A good square State could lose its metropolis with less repining than Pennsylvania can lose Chambersburg. We had better put our hands in our pockets and pay Pennsylvania for that d—d town, dollar for dollar."

You never heard a Methodist revival meeting in your life shout amen with such unanimity as those poor threadbare, troubled rebels, cried:

"Damn Chambersburg!"

VOYAGE ROUND THE WORLD.—The steamer America, of the Pacific Mail line, has been advertised for some days to leave late in May, or early in June, for a voyage to San Francisco by way of the Cape of Good Hope and the East Indies. She advertises to take passengers for Cape Town, Galle, Hongkong, Japan and San Francisco and gives passengers the choice of coming overland or by sea from the latter point. The voyage, in some respects, will be an interesting one; but the objection to it would be the large quantity of water and the very small quantity of land to be visited. George Francis Train and several other Fenians propose to make a journey around the world in 90 days, going overland to San Francisco, and thence by Japan, China, the Indian Ocean, Red Sea, Mediterranean and the Atlantic Ocean to New York. They will come back with a very confused notion of matters and things in general; and if they do not have an attack of salt water on the brain before getting here, it will be no fault in the peculiarity of the journey. To go round the world in 90 days is not a mode of travel that furnishes much information, which is the object of most travel unconnected with business.—Bulletin's New York Letter.

THE LATE ELECTION IN MICHIGAN.—Democratic exchanges have made much flourish over asserted gains in the late Michigan election. While it is true that bad nominations and consequent local divisions lost a few judges in Republican districts, the vote for Supreme Judge shows that Michigan is staunch and true as ever. Last Fall, with a very full vote, Grant's majority was 31,481. At the late election, for Supreme Judges, the vote stood as follows: Thomas M. Cooley, Republican, 90,705, D. D. Hughes, Democrat, 59,886. Republican majority, 30,819.

A Hardshell Baptist preached in Washington City lately, and took for his text, "God made man in his own image." He then commenced, "An honest man is the noblest work of God." Then he made a long pause, and looked searchingly about the audience, and then exclaimed, "But I opine God Almighty hasn't had a job in this city for nigh on fifteen years."

George William Curtis closed an after-dinner speech with the following: "Most men, when they die, like to have some line indicative of their aspirations carved upon their gravestones; as for me, come death whenever it may, I should prefer to have inscribed upon my gravestone. 'Here lies one who, early and late, did all he could to see that other men had fair play.'"

TO THE UNFORTUNATE!

NEW REMEDIES, NEW RESULTS.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Disclosures.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from the exhausting and destructive effects of the secret habits of youth, when alone, or in the company of others, which debilitates the mind, destroys the physical energies of the system, and renders marriage, or the enjoyment of life, impossible. Have you a pimply face, blotches on the body and limbs, and sometimes sores, with dull eyes, and deep purple rings around them, with frequent pains in the head, back and limbs, and a feeling of weariness and debility, with a disinclination to perform the ordinary duties of life? If you have, you are laboring under the effects of a disease which, if not eradicated from the system, will surely undermine the constitution, and render life miserable, short and uncertain. Many are troubled with a sediment in the urine after making water, and sometimes a thick, ropy substance passes off, with a sensation of weakness across the small of the back, and a dimness of sight, loss of memory, with a wandering of the mind, are some of the many symptoms produced by those secret habits. Such persons should consult the Doctor immediately, and be restored to perfect health and enjoy life.

Dr. Gibbon has made private diseases his especial study, and has had the most extensive experience in the treatment of the same of any physician in the United States. He is consulted daily by hundreds of persons from all parts of the country, many of whom have been under the treatment of other physicians, who have failed to cure them, and who, in despair, have given up all hope of ever being restored to health. Dr. Gibbon is the only physician who has ever made the treatment of these diseases a study, and he is the only physician who has ever been able to cure them. He is consulted daily by hundreds of persons from all parts of the country, many of whom have been under the treatment of other physicians, who have failed to cure them, and who, in despair, have given up all hope of ever being restored to health. Wholesale liquor dealers are those who sell liquors in quantities exceeding five gallons at any one time; or any person or firm whose annual sales exceed $25,000. All drug stores that sell liquors in quantities over one-half pint have to pay licenses as liquor dealers. Retail liquor dealers are those who sell liquors in quantities less than five gallons. Under this head nearly all the drug stores in the country are licensed, which makes the business appear larger than it really is. General wholesale dealers are those whose annual sales exceed $25,000. Retail dealers are those whose sales exceed $1,000 and do not exceed $25,000. Every person is regarded as a tobacco dealer whose annual sales are $100 or more. Every person who manufactures goods to the amount of $1,000 per annum or sells his manufactures to that amount, is regarded as a manufacturer. The tax upon hotels is $10 each, irrespective of rental value. Where the annual rental value exceeds $200 the tax is $5 additional for every additional $100 in rental value.

In General.

An army officer has reported officially that all efforts to make peace with the Sioux Indians are failures. They declare their preference for war, and are constantly committing murders and other outrages on the settlers within their reach.

Figaro, the dramatic paper of San Francisco, obs[erves] that some of the journals of the Pacific metropolis "have been making high froth over the fact that they afforded tolerable reports of the late railroad celebration. As these reckless demonstrations of newspaper enterprise occur only about once a year they are all the more startling to the public mind."

The growing prosperity of the Southern States is faithfully indexed by the number of cotton manufactories in operation. Though many of them are not of a very extensive or substantial character, yet they indicate a design to appropriate the earnings from the cotton crop to solid purposes and a desire to economize as much as possible by saving the cost of marketing the raw material. The number of mills now in existence is eighty-six.

The London Times suggests that England is entitled to the undying gratitude of the United States, because she refrained from taking the side of the rebellion and making it successful when she had the power. The theory would be a convenient one in the case of a housebreaker, if he happened to be embarrassed on account of stealing the plate and jewels. The owner would be indebted to the thief, for he might have set the house on fire.

On a sudden the idea has got abroad in Europe that our President is a terrible annexationist. The German and French papers say the President has made up his mind to annex the whole of British America and Cuba before his term of office expires, and some heavy quills have been worn out in criticisms and predictions pertaining thereto. Usually it is a "letter from New York" which supplies the information, and very wonderful some of the correspondence is. The price of the funds and of the United States bonds are not unfrequently affected by it, so probably the main object of the writer is attained.

The New York Sun gives a highly-colored account of a new religious association now forming in that State on the border of Lake Erie. The society owns about sixteen hundred acres of unimproved land, which it is proposed to put under cultivation "on æsthetic and celestial principles." Perfect social equality is enjoined between all members of this community. The temporal affairs are directed by nineteen trustees who can do nothing except by unanimous consent. Their religious belief is too vague and shadowy for description. They reject the Trinity, but recognize Jesus Christ as the one only and true God. They have no church edifices, are frugal, temperate, self-denying and propose to live apart from the world.

The New York Times of May 9th, in an article on "The Flood Tide of Immigration," says: "The cry is still they come. Probably never in the history of this country have there been such indications of enormous immigration as now. From all parts of Germany, particularly from Prussia, and from all parts of Great Britain, the news is that peasantry and mechanics are emigrating to America in numbers unprecedented. Bremen and Queenstown are filled with them, and the steamships and packets are unable to accommodate those who apply, the companies raise their rates, they charter other boats, but they do not succeed in checking the pressure of passengers." It is evident that these people don't believe the Democratic croakers in this country who are perpetually maundering about the hard lot of our laboring classes.

We said a day or two since that Ben Hayden who is speaking in Washington Territory, is disgusting intelligent Democrats, by harping on the "nigger" and repudiation. The Herald believes this is the first time we have ever acknowledged the existence of an "intelligent Democrat." Not at all, there are a good many intelligent Democrats, but very few of that class are editors. The Herald's error arises from its supposition that when we are scoring the ignorant editors and frothy speakers of its party we mean to imply that there are no intelligent men in that organization. The intelligent Democrat is a man who never urges the repudiation of the debt, the re-establishment of slavery or the abolishment of the General Government, and who is not afraid of "nigger equality." There are such Democrats, but we admit that they are not so numerous in some localities as the "lost cause" brethren.

There are seven tanneries in Santa Cruz, which produce not much less than 50,000 sides per annum. One yard alone turned out rising of 20,000 sides last year.

A Chinaman named [illegible] fell from a second story window last night, breaking the left leg.

A drunken individual named Solomon fell in the bay at 9 A. M. to-day at the foot of Ocean street and was rescued by officer Quinn.

A [illegible] was garroted and robbed of a small sum of money on Pine street, fronting A[illegible] Chinamen arrested. The victim was a [illegible] drunk at the time, but the gang he was [illegible]

Two men named Hyttonal and Larphe were stopped Sunday night, while riding near the Free Mason House, on the San Bruno road, by two footpads, who intimidated them revolvers with and robbed them of a gold watch and chain worth $200, a silver spoon and six dollars in coin.

Mr. Davis, of the regular police force, died at 8 A. M. to-day of disease of the heart.

[illegible] fell off the dock at the foot of Third Street in an open boat on Sunday and have not been heard of since. It is feared they are drowned.

John Smith, boatswain of the ship Rose Noe, came to his boarding house last night intoxicated, and with a frightful wound in the abdomen. Up to the present time he has not recovered his senses and the affair is wrapped in mystery.

Ten warrants were issued to-day against as many hog ranch keepers, at Butchertown. The complaints were preferred by Lucien B. Clement, Health Inspector.

Wm. N. Coghill, of the firm of Coghill & Lyon, Front street grocers, died yesterday in this city.

Morning stocks this morning were generally firm and moderately active.

The Yosemite Turnpike Company have completed their road to Harding's Mill. By this route it is only one hundred and eighty miles to Yosemite Valley, passing through the Tuolumne grove of mammoth trees. The total fare by stages and saddle trains will not exceed twenty dollars from Stockton to the valley. Persons may leave here by the stage and go to Chinese Camp on Tuesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays; thence by another line of stages via Big Oak Flat and Garrota to Harding's Mill, thence by saddle train to the Yosemite Valley. This arrangement commences on Wednesday, the 26th inst.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, May 25.—The weather is again pleasant but cool. Ice formed a quarter of an inch thick last night.

S. J. Paredes, injured a few days since at the Piute Mill, died of his injuries.

Gustave Young Siegrist fell from the wire during his second performance at the Opera House, but with no more serious injury than a bruised shoulder. Virginia city has now seven cases of small pox in the hospital, though but a small percentage proves fatal.

The Savage Co. shipped to night 979 pounds of bullion, valued at $2,550,510.

One thousand three hundred men are now at work on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, pushing the work ahead most rigorously. Snow fell this morning sufficiently to cover the ground, a second edition of winter.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, May 25.—Yesterday, the Queen's birthday, was observed as a general holiday. Business was entirely suspended. During the afternoon a horse race took place at Beacon Hill. To-day is observed as a holiday to give people an opportunity of witnessing the regatta. A large number of excursionists, from the Sound, are in town.

Mr. Decosmos has declared himself a candidate for a seat in the Legislature, made vacant by the death of Dr. Davies.

SEATTLE, May 25.—A man, name unknown, left this place for Snohomesh river. While journeying his way on the trail next day, he was attacked by an Indian named Joe and stabbed with a knife in the breast and cut in several places, besides having his fingers lacerated while endeavoring to take the knife from the Indian. He finally escaped and succeeded in reaching the house of a Catholic Priest. When last heard from he was in a dangerous condition. A party is now out hunting for the Indian, who belongs to the Snoqualmie tribe.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright from Portland arrived here last evening.

OREGON.

Says the Roseburg paper: Probably not less than ten thousand head of sheep have passed through this place, going South, during the past week.

The Board of Managers of the Douglas County Agricultural Society met on Saturday last at Roseburg to take definite action with regard to holding a county fair.

The rush to Goose Lake from the Southern counties still continues. Many people are also going to Pitt river, and are driving large numbers of sheep with them.

A Southern Oregon paper reports that highly encouraging reports are continually received from the newly discovered mines on Myrtle Creek. Experienced miners predict that these diggings will prove quite extensive and permanent.

Lew Zigler, of Jacksonville, shot a Chinaman who was robbing his sluice box a few nights ago. The gun was loaded with small shot and the robber received about fifty of them from the hip up to the top of his head. He will die.

The Polk county paper learns that the stock of the Oregon Linen Factory Company has all been subscribed, and the preliminaries are now in progress towards a tangible result. It is expected that Mr. Holt, Superintendent of the Willamette Woolen Mills, will shortly start for the East to procure the necessary machinery. It is proposed to manufacture all sorts of linen fabrics, gunnies, oil cloths, etc.

The Times says that some of the leading farmers and stockmen of Polk county "propose calling a meeting at the Court House some day during the first week in June for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps towards organizing a County Agricultural Society, of which full and due notice will be given in our next issue. We urge upon every farmer and manufacturer the importance and necessity of their participation."

From the Jacksonville Sentinel: We believe there has never has been so great a demand for cattle in this part of Oregon as there has been this season. We are informed that forty thousand head of cattle have passed Deer Creek in their way to the Goose Lake country. The whole number driven from Douglas county and adjoining counties will be about that figure, which at $20 per head will amount to $800,000, which will make the hands some sum of money.

A passenger informs us that the other day Jack Montgomery, the stage driver between Eugene and Oakland, as the stage approached Evans Station, Linn county, got out and told Montgomery with an oath that he meant to kill him. He then took deliberate aim with a carbine, but the gun missed fire. Montgomery put the reins down and was leaving on the run, but had not gone far enough to get out of reach when the gun was fired a second time, one of which took effect in the leg. The assailant was captured, taken to Roseburg on Sunday night, had his trial on Monday and was sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary.
